

Angola 2025

Serving the Angolan Sports Movement

Vision and Mission

Graciano leads a soccer-based sports ministry in Lubango, Angola, with a vision to use sports as a bridge to faith. His ministry reaches 250+ youth from underprivileged backgrounds, providing mentorship, community engagement, and discipleship through sports. His goal is to expand sports ministry efforts across Angola and create a sustainable movement that fosters leadership and transformation.

Project Context

Graciano's ministry operates in five locations on the outskirts of Lubango, serving children and youth aged 10-20. Many of these athletes lack basic resources such as food, clothing, and education. Through soccer, the ministry provides hope, structure, and a sense of belonging. The work goes beyond sports, focusing on character development, leadership, and faith integration. Since 2019, the Sport JVG Academy has participated in provincial championships, winning the U13 title in 2024.

Goals and Objectives

1. Empower and Connect Sports Ministries Across Angola
2. Provide Holistic Support to Underprivileged Youth
3. Promote Personal and Spiritual Growth through Sports
4. Develop Sustainable Infrastructure for Sports Ministry
5. Ensure Financial Sustainability and Expand Resources

Immediate Needs:

- Sports Equipment: Soccer balls, cleats, jerseys, shin guards, and training tools.
- Infrastructure Development: Building a proper soccer field, leveling land, and creating changing rooms.
- Financial Support: Covering travel, competition fees, and providing food supplements for athletes.

Prayer Requests

- Pray for open doors and partnerships to support the expansion of sports ministry in Angola.
- Pray for resources such as equipment, financial support, and training opportunities to sustain and grow the ministry.
- Pray for strong relationships, unity, and leadership development among young athletes and coaches.
