

Colombia 2025

serving the Colombian sports movement

Vision and Mission

Jairo and his wife Doris have dedicated over 30 years to sports ministry, using sports as a powerful tool for evangelism, discipleship, and community transformation. Their mission is to equip churches, train leaders, and create sustainable sports initiatives that impact at-risk youth and communities across Colombia and beyond.

Project Context:

Jairo's ministry operates through church partnerships, football academies, and professional sports involvement. His impact includes:

- Church-Based Sports Ministry: Working with 15 churches in northern Colombia to integrate sports into outreach and discipleship.
- Football Academies: Engaging youth in underprivileged areas, providing mentorship and training to prevent crime and violence.
- Disaster Relief: Using sports as a means of rebuilding communities affected by natural disasters.
- Professional Chaplaincy: Ministering to athletes and coaches within Colombian professional football.

Goals and Objectives:

1. Equip Churches for Sports Ministry by training pastors and leaders to integrate faith into sports.
2. Engage At-Risk Youth through football academies that provide hope, discipline, and mentorship.
3. Develop Theological & Practical Resources to enhance sports ministry training.
4. Strengthen Collaboration with SRS Int. and global sports networks to grow the movement.

How we serve:

- Empower Church-Based Sports Ministries by training leaders and equipping churches.
- Mentor and Support Young Athletes through football academies and faith-based coaching.
- Develop Sports Ministry Training Materials to equip future leaders in Colombia and beyond.
- Facilitate International Collaboration by connecting Jairo with sports ministry leaders worldwide.
- Provide Structural and Financial Support for sustainable long-term impact.

Prayer requests

- Pray for new partnerships to expand sports ministry efforts in Colombia and internationally.
- Pray for the development of sports ministry training materials and leader networks.
- Pray for resources and opportunities to sustain and grow the football academies.
